WWIN helps women reach economic stability-transforming their lives and their community. WWIN inspires women to see what's possible and helps equip them with the higher education they need to reach their full potential. We walk with each woman on her path to success, supporting her, advocating for her, connect her with opportunities, and helping her voice be heard and amplified along the way.

In the spring of 2019, WWIN transitioned all one-year Education Grantees to Star Scholars, eligible to be considered for continued WWIN funding of up to $5,000 each academic year and up to $20,000 maximum throughout their college careers until graduation.

All of our Star Scholars are women who have demonstrated excellent alignment with our vision, mission, and values. They are women who have overcome life's obstacles with a positive outlook, resilience, and determination, and who have decided that higher education is a critical step along their journey to achieve economic stability. WWIN walks alongside them on that journey by providing encouragement and empowerment as well as financial support while they pursue their degrees.

Acceptance into the program is competitive. In our application cycle for the 2020-2021 academic year, we received 576 applications, 185 of which were eligible for review. As of July 2020, we are in the process of selecting 90 new Scholars. In addition to being ready to transform their lives, applicants must meet all of WWIN's eligibility criteria and submit all required documentation to be considered.

We had 41 Star Scholars graduate in Spring and Summer 2020, 40 with Bachelors degrees and 1 with an Associates degree. Their average GPA is 3.72. Our graduates attended 21 approved and accredited colleges and universities in Washington state.

In July 2019, we launched the Pathways to Success coaching grant program. This is designed for women who are at the first step in their journey towards economic stability and need guidance to create their road-map to success. Women who are selected for this program work one-on-one with a certified coach for six months to determine their goals and concrete steps for achieving those goals.

WWIN awarded 17 of these grants in FY20, totaling $30,600. Four women have completed the six-month program to date.

In July 2019, WWIN launched the Resiliency Fund for our Star Scholars. This program was designed to provide our Scholars with more comprehensive support by assisting with expenses outside of school that could impact their ability to continue with their education.

Current WWIN Star Scholars can apply for a Resiliency Fund grant at any time. On their application, they explain what expense they need help funding, the special circumstances, and how they plan to cover the expense if they cannot receive help from WWIN. The WWIN staff reviews these applications within two business days and decides to approve or deny the requests or help the Scholar in another way. There is a lifetime maximum of $2,000 in Resiliency funding for each Scholar. Requests range from $50 to $2,800 and the average approved award is $766.

This program became extremely critical during the global pandemic, as Scholars suddenly faced new and unexpected challenges: their education quickly transitioned to virtual learning only, their children stayed home from school while childcare centers closed, and they lost work on campus or in the service industry. Many were navigating the process of applying for unemployment while simultaneously studying for remote finals and homeschooling their children. WWIN was able to step in during this incredibly challenging and stressful time to provide some relief - helping Scholars buy groceries for their families or pay rent and utility costs when they had no other means. We were fortunate to receive additional support from several of our major donors to make it possible for us to respond quickly to this crisis and prevent our Scholars from dropping out of school.

In July 2019, we launched the Career Launch coaching grant program. This is designed for women who are graduating soon or have recently graduated with their college degree and could use support and guidance during the transition from higher education to career. Women who are selected for this program work one-on-one with a certified coach for six months to learn about strategic job searching, practice interview skills, discuss salary negotiation, determine if an employer will be the right fit, and navigate the new workplace.

The global pandemic in 2020 created additional challenges for these women. Companies were no longer actively hiring and interviews were canceled. WWIN allowed two women in the Career Launch coaching program to put their grants on hold temporarily during this time so that they could re-focus their efforts and work actively with their coaches once again when things began to re-open.

WWIN awarded 7 of these grants in FY20, totaling $10,800.

WWIN has always strived to provide women with opportunities, inspiration, support, and advocacy as they work towards the achievement of their goals. Our new program strategies are designed around supporting a woman to define her own pathway and goals, to complete her education, to connect with a career that she is passionate about and that can sustain her financially, and to be able to advocate for herself and others. We are so grateful to everyone who participated in our strategic planning process. We are excited to continue implementing our new programs strategy during fiscal year 2020 with the launch of three new WWIN grant programs: Pathways to Success, Resiliency Grants and Career Launch.
